Chapter 1 by Sarah

" Once upon a time, there was a world called Earth. Earth was filled with the Animals of Life that was slowly being slaughtered.They were being killed by an intelligent race called humans. They had their own language, could read and write, had steel weapons that hurt when they bite, and strangest of all, THEY STOOD ON THEIR HIND LEGS ! They Fought hatefully at each other and at the Animals of Life. Cats, as humans called them, were very intelligent, but even more cunning. The Cats knew of the danger everyone faced. They brewed a potion with a hint of human skin. They announced that the potion was to cure the Humans of violence and Destruction. The Cats added the potion to the human's strange meals and waited. And Waited. And waited. A small Cat named Kit, who was a runt, but devilishly cute, tasted the potion, for Kit did not like being lonely. The cats realized that the potion may be poison, and quarantined Kit. A few hours later, Light blasted within Kit's cell> The Cats were fearful of what they would find and knew that they were in trouble, for when the light slunk out of Kit's cell, It revealed that Kit was-"
